Pathfinders Slate 'Project Handclasp'

Pathfinder Club members of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., are laying plans to help refugees from Red China through "Project Handclasp."

John Dillon, 4713 Laurette St., director of the 40-member church youth club, explained the project will be to collect clothing, bedding and food in Torrance on Halloween eve for Chinese refugees fleeing Red China.

"Our youth club members will be out on Halloween eve collecting this treat for thousands of refugees streaming into Hong Kong from all parts of China," Dillon said.

They will be taken to San Francisco where the navy will transport them free to Hong Kong," Dillon explained.

Dillon said food collected will be sent to Monument Valley, Utah, where it will be distributed to Navajo Indians facing a winter without adequate food supplies.

PARTICIPATE
"We believe this project is one in which every person who feels compassion for those in need can readily participate," he said.

The local youth club leader said 54 Los Angeles-area Adventist Pathfinder youth clubs will join other clubs throughout the western U.S. in helping gather 100 tons of bedding and clothes for "Project Handclasp."

City Missionary To Guest Today

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church of Lomita will have a guest speaker at the 8:30 and 10:55 a.m. services today. The Rev. William A. Burkey, city missionary of the Los Angeles association, will guest. Burkey formerly served in the same capacity in the San Francisco area. The pastor, Robert A. Wells, will speak at the evening service. He is conducting a revival at the First Baptist Church of Thousand Oaks. Wells will speak at the Oregon - Washington Baptist Convention in annual session at Wenatchee,

Church to Offer Historic Sermon

Aug. 17, 1809, Thomas Campbell, a Presbyterian minister, stood before a large group from various denominations and delivered a sermon which was destined to bring these and others into a united church which was the first significant merger in the United States.

This sermon, "The Declaration and Address," was the document which brought into existence the Christian Church. The sermon consisted of 13 propositions, the first of which began, "The Church of Christ upon earth is essentially, intentionally, and constitutionally one, consisting of all those in every place that profess their faith in Christ and obedience to him in all things according to the Scriptures."

Sunday morning Leslie C. Ashford, Minister of the Del Amo Christian church, will bring these 13 propositions in a special message edited by Professor George Alder of San Jose Bible College, and then view the intent of these 13 propositions in the light of modern ecumenical and unity movements.

The morning Worship Service is conducted at 10 a.m. with duplicate Sunday School sessions at 8 and 11 a.m.

Open house monday for our neighbors in Torrance

Open house... Everyone's invited ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, FROM 10 A.M. TO 9 P.M. we're having an open house and everyone's invited. Since we're moving to a new permanent location (a few steps from the old location) we thought this would be a good opportunity to serve some refreshments and give away some door prizes (50). We hope you'll stop by and take a look at our new office. The entire staff will be on hand to show you around. The address is 2665 Pacific Coast Highway.

Citizens National Bank's Permanent Office in the Rolling Hills Plaza Shopping Center Opens Monday. This new location for our Pacific Coast Highway-Crenshaw Office is just a few steps from our old temporary location. With the opening of this new permanent office, Citizens offers the people of Torrance the most modern banking services available: electronic banking equipment; air conditioning; escrow services; safe deposit; and plenty of free parking. And the same well-trained staff who served you before will be on hand to serve you again. Visit us soon.
